

Deferment of admissions

Admissions offer may be postponed or rescheduled on grounds specified below:-

1. An applicant who is unable to take up the offer of admission will be required to inform in writing the Academic Registrar at least one week prior to the date of registration.
2. An applicant who fails to inform the Academic Registrar of his/her deferment of admission will be deemed to have forfeited his/her position and will be deregistered from the course admitted to.
3. An official letter of deferment of admission from the Academic Registrar shall be issued as a confirmation of deferment and a copy placed in the student's file.
